TRAINING SCHOOL
FOR NURSES
At Norwich, Connecticut

The W. W. Backus Hospital, a general hospital with well equipped medical, surgical and obstetrical departments, offers a three years' course to young women desiring a nurse's profession. Books and uniforms are furnished the first year.
The Backus Hospital is delightfully situated in the best residential section of Norwich, about one mile from the heart of the city, on one of the main trolley lines. It is one of the most modern and up to date institutions of the state, and is fully equipped for the teaching of students for the profession of nursing.

EDWARD P. HAMILTON, Auctioneer
AUCTION SALE
TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1921,
at 10:30 a. m., rails or shins,
75 to 100 HORSES,
26 head of young, sound, fresh Iowa and Indiana Horses. Several matched teams, all colors, sizes and weights; also several nice single Horses; 50 head of good, big, young, sound second hand Horses. Every horse so in this sale will be sold with our ironclad guarantee and if not as represented money refunded in cash.
Since I have been in Norwich I have sold in the neighborhood of 250 Horses, and every horse I have sold has made a friend for me, and all my customers are well satisfied. In my last two sales I have put up every horse and sold them regardless of their cost or value, and I will do the same this time. Our motto: Quick sales and small profits. In this sale we will have a horse for every kind of a job. This is the cheapest place in New England to buy a horse. Auction sales every two weeks. Horses are cheaper today than they ever were. Come to this sale and see for yourself.
